TERMS OF SALE

This is a public and mail bid auction sale. Lots will be sold on the dates indicated. Bidders unknown to us must supply acceptable credit references or a 25% deposit to assure entry of their bids.

A ten percent buyers' premium will be added to the cost of all lots.

All floor sales are final. No lots may be returned for any reason by floor buyers. Any claims for adjustment by mail bidders must be made within three days after receipt of books. No lots may be returned without our written permission.

Terms of this sale are strictly cash in United States funds only. Payments from foreign accounts must be made in U.S. Dollars by International Check to the account of George Frederick Kolbe through any New York Correspondent bank. Bids from minors cannot be accepted without written and signed parental permission.

Unless exempt by law, the buyer will be required to pay, on the total purchase price, the combined New York State and local sales tax or any applicable compensating use tax of any other state.

All books are as described. We acknowledge the possibility of errors or typographical mistakes, and any errors on our part will be cheerfully corrected. We cannot be responsible for your errors; please check your bid sheet carefully.

Title remains with the owner until lots are paid for in full. We reserve the discretionary right to withhold delivery of lots until full payment has been received.

The prices indicated after each lot are estimates of value only and are intended solely as a guide. The prices realized may be higher or lower than these valuations.

By submitting your bids you agree to the Terms of Sale herewith set forth. Payment in full must be made immediately upon notification or upon receipt of books.

Lots to be mailed to addresses not in the United States or its Territories will be sent only at the risk of the purchaser. When possible, insurance will be obtained. It must be noted, however, that adequate insurance is often not available via surface mail.

All lots will be sold to the highest bidder. Mail bids will be treated as limits and lots will be purchased below the maximums where competition permits. There is no charge or commission for executing bids, however, a premium of 10% of the successful bid price is payable by the buyer as part of the total purchase price. All postage, insurance and shipping charges will be added to invoices. There will be a $1.00 charge per lot for packing and processing.

Copy No. 77 of 150 copies, signed by Waters. Tipped in on page 318 is a notice concerning lottery tickets clipped from the February 3, 1794 London Sun. Another clipping is tipped in on page 322 concerning Newcastle and other grand stand race tickets. In addition, loosely laid in, are six handwritten letters, five of which are written to Waters and one to Davis. Included are two letters to Waters from James Atkins, written in 1900 and 1901. The first letter inquires whether Waters is still gathering information on "Theatre and Club Tickets" and the second discusses the "Davis Sale" and states: "But then that was a very funny affair altogether, both as respects the high prices as well as the low, and the strange point about it is that the total is within £50 of reaching the figure I placed upon it!" The other letters to Waters, including one from Lionel Fletcher and one from Davis, all deal with numismatic topics. The latter to Davis, written in 1899 by H. B. Bowles, discusses silver tickets.

Bound collection of Coinage decrees of the Saxon Electors (and Kings of Poland), Friedrich August I (1694-1733) and Friedrich August II (1733-63), covering the period 1721 to 1762. Together with related announcements and illustrated warnings against counterfeit coins. Illustrations, woodcut headings, engraved title pages. Large 8vo. The volume comprises 55 documents: 22 printed decrees, 6 announcements clarifying or modifying decrees, 21 contemporary manuscript copies of decrees or extracts, in various hands, 6 Broadsheets illustrating counterfeit or sub-standard coins. (450.00)

The decrees deal for the most part with the currency, within Saxony, of a range of contemporary foreign coins (German States, France, Sweden) and in particular the banning of sub-standard coins. Of major interest are the decrees of April 28, 1721, November 28, 1724 and July 19, 1732, each of which are accompanied by line drawings of devalued or banned foreign coins, warnings against counterfeits, the decree of August 7, 1753, which bears a wax and paper seal impression, and a group of six decrees of 1758-62 banning specific coins from other German States. This collection of decrees provides a rare insight into the problems of currency regulation in a major central European state during the eighteenth century. Very rare. At the inside of the lower back cover is the label of K. F. Koehlers, Antiquarium, Leipzig.

Approximately 2000 descriptions of coins, usually with the legend transcribed in native script and often translated into English. Crimson half morocco, handwritten spine label. Fine. (750.00)

This interesting manuscript covers the entire range of oriental numismatics from the time of Alexander the Great. Where possible, the coins are attributed to contemporary numismatic reference works. It is an excellent survey of this complex area and, in some series, goes into considerable detail. The first two hundred or so pages are devoted to the coinages of the Islamic dynasties, the next four hundred pages are mostly devoted to the various coinages of India and surrounding areas. There is a short section on Southeast Asia and the final three hundred fifty or so pages are given over to the coinages of the Far East. A major effort, certainly requiring the better part of a lifetime of study. At the 1981 C.O.I.N. sale held by Kolbe (Auction Sale 9) this item realised $2,600.

Portraits include 14 Presidents, 1 Vice President, 6 Secretaries of State, 12 Secretaries of the Treasury, 3 Secretaries of War, 3 Postmaster Generals, 2 Secretaries of Navy, and 1 Attorney General, Chief Justice, Secretary of the Interior, Admiral, Major General and Army Surgeon General. There are also a number of vignettes, advertising cards, a beautiful chromo-lithograph Valentine card, and original artwork for beer advertising cards housed in a pouch inside the front cover.
